Messenger Not For Sale

spite of a number of flattering offers, August Belmont has definitely decided not to sell his two-year-old colt Messenger, which scored a sensational victory in the Grab Bag. This was learned yesterday when he finally declined the offer of $100,000 made by Harry Payne Whitney for the chestnut son of Fair Play and

It developed that other sportsmen had been bidding for the colt. Gifford A. Cochran and Edward B. McLean had each inquired how much more than $100,000 Mr. Belmont would want for his horse.
